Chapter 1 by Hannah Banana

I am now alone. I was abandoned by my ex best friend. Why had she done this to me? I lifted my head up, looking at my surroundings.

A desert? Why a desert?

The sand was golden and shimmering in the hot sun. No food or water in sight, and all I had was the clothes on my back. I would give anything for a hotel with air conditioning.

Chapter 2 by Rix Quill

My speech began to slur and my ability to spell deteriorated. But I wasn't about to let that drag me down. I was still presentable in what Geneth left me - a green t-shirt and blue shorts, so I'll be ready for whatever comes along. But she knows I hate to be unsynchronised where clothes are concerned.

I had to focus my efforts on getting back at Gweneth for leaving me here in this burning hell-hole. In fact, I can tolerate the heat, it's the sun I hate,

Chapter 3 by The Wizard

the only thing I had on me was a back pack with an emergency flare and an empty water bottle
